

New York Colony of Tuxedo Park at Bachelors' Ball

Numerous Dinners Precede Columbus Day Event at Club House.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
TUXEDO PARK, N. Y., Oct. 11.—In anticipation of Columbus Day, which for many will be a day free from business, there are scores of visitors in the villas for the dance given by bachelors of Tuxedo Park for their friends of the colony and others from New York. The dance was held in the old club house, whose octagonal ballroom has been the scene of many festivities. As a rule the autumn ball has been the first dance of the season in Tuxedo, but that of tonight will not in any way interfere with the late dance. The committee included Messrs. E. Victor Low, Francis Burke Roche, Alfred E. Dabney, Andre Lord and G. Gilbert W. Keech.

Numerous dinners were given in advance of the ball. Among the hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Ernest H. Adee, Mr. and Mrs. Amory S. Carhart, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J.
